

DECLARATION OF DAVID RICHARDSON

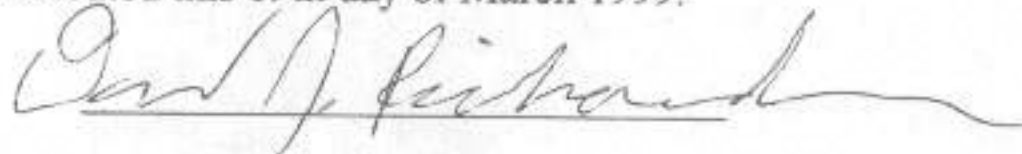

1. I, David Richardson, am over eighteen years of age, a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of California. If called upon to do so, I could testify of my personal knowledge to the facts contained within this declaration.
2. I have consistently studied martial arts from Frank Dux and his instructors staff for ten years.
3. During my ten years of training I have heard accounts made by others accusing Dux of claiming he was a decorated Vietnam veteran. I have also read magazine articles portraying Dux as such. I have seen counterfeit promotional materials attributing these claims to Dux.
4. Dux has never made any claims in my presence of being a Vietnam veteran or decorated. In fact, he has actively denied such claims by making announcements in class and in private. He has taken steps to correct this by having instructors posting signs denouncing promotion materials and magazines where such claims are made as being untrue.

5. From 1989 to 1991, I attended martial arts school functions where I saw video taped footage of Dux participating in bare handed martial arts tournament fights, best known as full-contact Kumite and as it is portrayed in the martial arts film starring Jean Claude Van Damme, based on Dux winning this event, called Bloodsport.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 19th day of March 1999.
